

The Role of Your Tutor:

Your tutor is here to:

* Supplement course instruction, not replace it

They are here to work with you in deepening your understanding of course material and lead you to knowledge, rather than re-teach what was covered in your lecture.

* Serve as a guide

They are here to guide you during the session. This means that you should be doing most of the talking and writing.

* Assist in goal-setting

Work with you to create semester, weekly, and daily goals, as well as a plan to achieve those goals, and a method to evaluate your progress.

* Help brainstorm

They are here to provide you with assistance in developing your own ideas.

* Comply with NCAA, USC, and SAAS regulations

They must abide by the rules set by the NCAA, USC, and SAAS.

NOT the Role of Your Tutor

Your tutor is NOT here to:

* Replace course instruction.

* Do work for you.

* Give his/her ideas to you.

* Give answers to homework, paper, exam questions, etc.

* Do things that you can do on your own.

* Assist you with any take-home exams/midterms/finals.

* Do anything that can jeopardize your status of being a student-athlete by violating NCAA, USC, and SAAS regulations.

The Role of a Student-Athlete During Tutorial Sessions

* Come on time and prepared with readings, lecture notes, assignments, independent work, and any other materials. Your advisor may give you a negative point if you are unprepared.

* Put forth effort.

* Ask questions when you are uncertain about material.

* Participate in discussions.

* Work towards meeting set goals.

* LEARN!

* Be respectful of your tutor's time.

An approval from your advisor, medical documentation, class schedule change, and/or emergencies are required for any permanent rescheduling. There is NO REPEATED TEMPORARY RESCHEDULING ALLOWED. Advisors may give you a negative point.
